

Teatro flamenco Information

For the first time the magic of “cante” (sing), dancing and flamenco guitar gather on the stage of a intimate and cozy theater, one of the most emblematic of the capital of Andalusia, Seville.

The viewer will experience the passion closely of a pure and authentic flamenco with top quality artists that will combine their art in different quality daily shows.

Do not miss this experience unique to live and feel flamenco, Intangible Cultural Heritage of the Humanity.

The heart of Andalusia beats in a unique corner, Seville, the capital of Andalusia.

The feeling of Spain and the Andalusian people inhabit a theater for the first time. A space unique, intimate and welcoming capable of creating that special magic from which emotions spring that connect the viewer and the artist.

We are the first flamenco theater in Andalusia. A place where the goblin of the pure flamenco. The one that from tradition reaches the universe turned into art.

We are the only flamenco theater in Andalusia with daily programming and different shows.

"Flamenco is a feeling of the soul that is danced, sung and played", Anonymous.

This is how our shows are, intense and close. A journey that takes us through all styles that are based on these three basic pillars: guitar, singing and dancing.

Dance with "bata de cola" (flamenco dress), as a couple, singing and guitar solos, end of party ...

The Seville Flamenco Theater is not just a flamenco show.

The TFS is called to become a cultural center and meeting place for flamenco enthusiasts and of anyone who wants to enter a world in which art combines all its aspects.
